

City Clerks Office - Creston, Iowa
Owner's Checklist for applying for
New Iowa Liquor License or Beer Permit
(On-Premise Sales)

(These steps do not necessarily have to be followed in order.)

- Request criminal history background checks from the Iowa Division of Criminal Investigation or issuing authority in owners' state of residence.

All owners of corporations and partnerships, and all sole proprietors and their spouses must submit background checks.
- Establish legal status of your proposed business.
 - $ Corporation or Limited Partnership (file with Iowa Secretary of State)
 - $ Partnership (file trade name document with County Recorder)
- Have premise approved. Contact City of Creston clerk's office
 - $ building inspection
 - $ fire code inspection
 - $ zoning code compliance
- Contact insurance agent to arrange for dram shop liability coverage. Ask about an endorsement for the outdoor service area, if included in your plans.
- Submit E-application to Alcoholic Beverages Division. (Note: be sure to select the company providing your insurance coverage – NOT the name of your local agent.)
- Take the following to the Creston City Clerk
 - $ e-application signature page;
 - $ sketch of premises on 8.5 x 11 white paper (including the outdoor service area, if applicable);
 - $ signed lease or purchase agreement;
 - $ background check responses (if they were returned to you).
- Apply for other required permits and licenses:
 - $ Federal Employer Identification Number (Internal Revenue Service);
 - $ Federal Special Occupational Tax permit (Dept. of Treasury, Tax & Trade; Bureau)
 - $ Iowa State Sales Tax permit (Iowa Department of Revenue & Finance).
